Trail Walk Suggestions

Continue past the loop and find a bench where you can pause and listen to the babbling brook in the next valley.

For more adventure take this rustic trail. Meander past the base of giant firs that escaped the logging of last century. Wear sturdy footgear and expect to duck under a fallen tree.

The licorice fern sprouts on tree trunks after a rain and disappears in dry weather. See if you can spot them along this trail.

A perfect place to enjoy the morning sun on the Olympics, or stretch your legs after dinner. The trail wanders in and out of lush forest, with a bench at the top for pausing and reflection.
