Families are invited to experience Hood Canal as a paddling venue at Alderbrook Resort & Spa's third annual St. Paddle's Day celebration. Festivities include complimentary paddling races, demonstrations, vendor booths, gear swap, and food and beverages on the waterfront lawn. With plenty of activities for kids and adults, St. Paddle's Day at Alderbrook is fun the whole family can enjoy. See below for some of the day's activities:

- Beginning at 9 a.m., kids between the ages of 4 and 12 are invited to try rowing in a Little Sculling Boat. Little Sculling boats are smaller and more stable than standard rowing boats, perfect for kiddos who are looking to learn to row in a more controlled environment. The Little Sculling Boat clinic is first-come-first serve and complimentary.

- Professional stand up paddle boarder Lina Augaitis will host a women's clinic from 3 to 5 p.m. for $40.
- Paddlers who want to race are invited to sign up online at: www.alderbrookresort.com.... Participants are encouraged to bring their own watercraft but if they don't have one, kayaks and paddle boards will be available for rent at special event pricing.
- Hilliard's Beer will be on site during the event pouring a selection of its hand-crafted brews for adults.
