CONFERENCE POLICIES

The guaranteed minimum number of guests attending each function is due to your catering representative no later than 3 business days prior to the commencement of the first function.

If the function is a plated function, exact entrée counts are due at this time as well.

The highest priced plated entrée item will be charged for all meals served.

The sale and service of alcoholic beverages is regulated by the Washington State Liquor Control Board. Resort staff is trained to and will follow all current regulations and guidelines.

No food or drink may be brought into any banquet functions at Alderbrook Resort & Spa. This does not apply inside guest rooms or inside cottages.

Exceptions are: Birthday cakes are allowed if they are made by a licensed bakery.

All significant last minute changes, within 48 hours of your event, to your agenda or function room set-up are subject to additional charge at the discretion of your catering representative.

No amplified music is allowed in outdoor venues past 8:00 PM or indoor venues past 11:00 PM. Volumes are monitored and controlled by hotel management. Guest room requirements apply to any function with amplified music indoors.

For decorations: No items are to be used in decorating that may damage or leave marks/holes in the walls, ceilings, flooring or lawns.

Please note-paper sky lanterns are prohibited from use. They cause an extreme fire hazard and are detrimental to the natural environment and waterways.

A set-up fee will be assessed to all outdoor functions.
