

RESORT FACTS

Located approximately two hours west of Seattle and north of Portland, Alderbrook Resort & Spa is nestled on Washington state's scenic and serene Hood Canal. Offering a rejuvenating getaway or idyllic conference retreat, Alderbrook Resort & Spa spans 88 lush acres and offers sweeping views of the nearby Olympic Mountains.

ADDRESS

10 E Alderbrook Drive, Union, WA 98592

HISTORY

Alderbrook's rich history is seen in historical photographs throughout the resort and in each guest room. Some families have come back to Alderbrook for generations while others are establishing new Northwest traditions.

- Established 1913
- Closed September 2002 to begin renovation
- Re-opened June 2004

ACCOMMODATIONS

All accommodations feature stunning Hood Canal views, luxurious linens, oversized bathrobes with slippers, aromatic Molton Brown bath amenities and Keurig single cup coffee and tea selections. Complimentary Wi-Fi is also available in each guestroom and cottage as well as throughout the resort. Traveling with a pet? The more the merrier! Alderbrook happily provides pet-friendly options for guests.

77 Luxurious Guest Rooms

- Feel of a private guest suite-perfect for a peaceful or personal retreat
- Window daybeds
- Oversized soaking tubs
- Writing desks
- Comfortable lounge chairs

16 Cottages

- Feel of a private beach house-perfect for family getaways
- One and two bedrooms
- Fully-furnished kitchens
- Separate living rooms
- Cozy fireplaces

DESIGN

Architect: Dan Foltz and Collins Woerman; Bellevue, Wash.

Interior Design: GGLO; Seattle, Wash.

Landscape Design: The Berger Partnership; Seattle, Wash.

